ON The specia

rules and the correction slip at p 179 of the Takkavi manual would seem to imply that this formal rejection of the application should also issue from the Dir. of Industries who is the officer competent to grant & recommend the loan to Govt. As however the Director has returned the papers to the Board the draft above may be approved

Why should the Bd. reject the Appl^{n}. (although it is a formal order) when it has nothing to do with such appl^{n}? KGK 28.6.29

Refee: AS's query.

Under note 1 to rule II, Collrs. may not pass final orders of rejection in cases of applications for loans exceeding Rs 10,000 even where the applicant has since withdrawn his application

Ref. L.A. No. 1/38., dated 8th June 192 9.

Sir,

*Advances - Loans - Bellary District - Harpanahalli Taluk - Aligalavada village - application of Chenna Veerappa for a loan of Rs.20,000 - submitted.

One P. Chenna Veerappa of Aligalavada, put in an application for a loan of Rs.20,000 for purchasing a motor tracter, a ginning plant, water pipes and pumping plant on the security of his patta lands. When the Tahsildar examined him he stated that he did not want the loan, and that he intended raising a loan otherwise. I recommend that his application may be rejected. The connected papers are enclosed.
